LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Demonstrate the ability to recall and retell simple conversations in SASL with accurate vocabulary and grammar.
- Apply appropriate non-manual features and facial expressions to convey the meaning and tone of recounted conversations.
- Analyze recorded or live signed conversations to identify key information and structure for retelling.
- Evaluate the clarity and accuracy of one's own recounted conversations and make necessary adjustments.
- Implement strategies to maintain coherence and logical flow when recounting dialogues in SASL.
- Design short narratives based on simple conversations, incorporating proper turn-taking and discourse markers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- This course is designed for individuals who have a foundational knowledge of South African Sign Language and wish to enhance their conversational recounting skills.
- It is suitable for interpreters, educators, family members of Deaf individuals, and anyone seeking to improve their SASL communication abilities.

COURSE OUTLINE

Day 1: Foundations of Recounting Simple Conversations in SASL

- Introduction to recounting: what it means and why it's important in SASL.
- Basic SASL grammar for sequencing: time markers, role-shifting, and spatial referencing.
- Non-manual features: facial expressions, eye gaze, and head nods for emphasis and turn-taking.
- Vocabulary expansion: common signs for people, actions, and objects in everyday contexts.
- Structuring a recount: beginning (setting), middle (events), end (conclusion).
- Practice activity: watch a short SASL dialogue and recount it step-by-step.
- Peer feedback and error correction: clarity, accuracy, and fluency.
- Recap and self-assessment checklist for recounting skills.
